MoneyTabs Turns iOS To Dominate All Other Apps You're reading this to learn how to save money. You're a miser, and I wouldn't be surprised to learn you don't even have an account on this site yet. If you're more into entertainment than income, you're in good company. Please continue reading. I think someone told me, once, that since I don't drink enough, I'm probably a bourgeois junkie. I couldn't tell you who's work that was, so you may have to trust me on that one. But what I DO know, is that some folks just love to spend money like there's no tomorrow. I'm not that guy. I don't even really like to "buy things" if I can prevent it. Buying anything without understanding the "where it's going" or "what I'll get" cost is, for me, inherently "risky." In light of all that, I've been playing around with a free iOS app called MoneyTabs. I admittedly love the idea of being "Scrooge McDuck in financial form." Ha ha, who am I kidding? Instead I'm spending about $12/month just to have my data backed up via Dropbox. It's honestly just me being insanely paranoid about losing data, having gotten into a few nasty data related problems that I wouldn't wish on anyone (including my own mother). After a couple months of using it, I believe MoneyT
