Erlacher by William A. Erlacher, Oklahoma City, for appellees. Robert S. Rizley, Oklahoma City, for appellant. IRWIN, Justice: The appellees brought this action against the appellant as a result of an asserted breach of an agreement for the sale of a ranch in Washita County. They appeal from an adverse jury verdict. *1133 In early June, 1974, appellees and appellant arrived at an agreement to sell and purchase a large ranch near Meherrin, Virginia, in Washita County, Oklahoma. At that time, the appellees owned a ranch near Granite, in Stephens County, which was about ten miles from the proposed ranch property. Appellant intended to leave his family in Granite and go to Virginia to live with the appellees and their two children. The appellees, with appellant's knowledge and approval, prepared to move their family from the Stephens County ranch to the proposed land in Virginia. The appellant orally agreed to remain in Granite for at least nine months while the appellees moved to Virginia and for an additional six months thereafter. The appellant was to be employed by the appellees at the Virginia ranch. Appellant was to be reimbursed $400.00 per month for moving expenses, and all of
