ITEMSÅ .(1) Field of the Invention The present invention relates to the art of film canister assemblies. More particularly, the invention relates to a modular film canister assembly comprising individual components which are fabricated to provide a complete assembly. (2) Description of the Prior Art A wide variety of canisters have been developed for use with photographic film or other types of film cartridges. These canisters are available in a wide variety of shapes, sizes and designs depending on the particular use. The cartridge or cassette should have a sealable opening so that the contents may be removed from the canister and the sealable opening should be closed after use. The cartridge may be provided with a frame or support base to stabilize the cartridge in a proper position on the camera when the cartridge is loaded thereon. Such film cartridges are disclosed in U.S. Pat. Nos. 3,731,692; 3,782,451; 4,099,772 and 4,173,878. Film canister structures for use with photographic cameras are disclosed in U.S. Pat. It is difficult to adapt the canister to a specific camera because the canister has been designed for a specific function and shape. It is an object of the present invention to provide a camera or camera accessory canister which may be readily adapted to a particular camera. It is another object of the present invention to provide a canister wherein a plurality of components are assembled to provide
