A possible third-party candidate has announced his intention to run for the Green Party's presidential nomination. John Audette, who is also running for secretary on the Green Party's ticket, said he would seek the presidency with the goal of being a "people's president." "I'm really a folksy person. I think I'd be great at it. I'm looking for the whole package," Audette said Tuesday, standing next to his campaign manager Jeremy Ott. Audette's announcement comes after two other Green Party members, Megan Raymond, and Rebecca Brown, announced their intent to run for president as well. Audette says he believes he is the ideal candidate for the position because he can carry the message of creating a "green" economy. He says he does not want to run solely on the issues of the environment, but rather on the message that "environmental sustainability can create wealth for every American." "We can be more energy-independent, and we can reach out to the world as a great trading nation," he said. "We can create jobs in this country. These are the three areas I'm focusing on. Those are my three core concerns." Audette, who also ran for Congress in 2004 and is the owner of an environmentally friendly business in San Rafael, has been involved in the Green Party for about 10 years. At this time, he is the only candidate to officially announce his intention to seek
