Follow Us This video is about 50 years old, and is obtained from the monitronics radio prototype development program, 1974. Isotopes are used in many aspects of our lives, and are also very hazardous. In this video, 2 students are discussing and discussing the importance of how isotopes can be used in many aspects of our lives, and are also very hazardous. In this video, they continue their discussion about isotopes in the early 1970's. One reason that the research behind basic, foundational science topics can be so difficult is the lack of a measure of progress. If I were to ask today's scientists, "What has been accomplished since the '30s?", what would they say? Author: SB This is my first attempt at making a music video, I am using Ableton with the Skilltree Apps. Basically this is my interpretation of one of Skrillex's OWSLA project, 'The Nest'. I made this trying to see how long I could keep it together with no human direction and see if it can be made plausible in any way. The result is that it was in no way scripted, the story is completely made up and improvised to best suit the music. I hope you enjoy. The theme is loosely based on 1984 and the abstract meaning is to try to create a lie that you believe in, something that you make up that makes you feel that you are special, that no one could ever really know what you are thinking. I did not know how to name this video and it has no label, but I hope you can get some meaning out of it. Documentalem disney galaxy, part 2: Disney empire seems to be the lifeblood of this company. Now this is clear how the company is even behind things like the Beauty and the Beast film with the history of the company behind it. Even the projects that came before this one are quick to point out that the film is like a spiritual continuation of the early Disney animated films. And there is no lie to it
