The Trump campaign announced early Thursday that it met the signature requirements to place his name on New Hampshire's presidential primary ballot. "We're very pleased, and we're looking forward to winning the state of New Hampshire," Trump said in a statement. "In New Hampshire, we will continue to grow and go up in the polls. The rest of the country will follow." The New Hampshire GOP has been urging candidates and their committees to hand over all of their petition documents as soon as possible for the purpose of counting them.
