First, let me go back a little bit. Let's go back to 2006. My prayer partner Sis and I were teaching and training at the Lutheran Church Mission in Uganda (...it was there). There were several preachers in Uganda-mostly Catholic clergy-who came to us asking us to help them preach. They said they couldn't preach the gospel to pagan peoples or African tribes because there were too many human sacrifices in their sermons. People were killing each other to get to God. And that was their answer. We couldn't help them. We could only talk to sinners about love, but not to pagan nations.
